SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 4, 1862

"Watchman! What of the Night!"

The steamer Cortes arrived last evening. We have Eastern telegraphic dates including 24th December. The despatches we copy from the San Francisco Bulletin, Alta, Call and Sacramento Union.

The news is all gratifying. We give it in substance. The Mason and Slidell affair is likely to be settled without difficulty; the tone of the British Minister was moderate—the rebel lines are said to be complete on the Potomac, and they are awaiting an attack from Gen. McClellan; the rebels are flying in Missouri; Gen. Pope captured another rebel force with a large amount of baggage, horses, etc.; 1300 rebels have been captured at Warrensburg, Mo.; cotton has been shipped from Beaufort; Gen. Burnside's expedition is ready to start for the South; a short and successful action with the rebels on the Potomac; Fort Pickens bombarding Fort McRae; great guns distributed to English war ships; great slave insurrection in Mississippi—with immense destruction of property; Gen. Halleck proclaims death to men who cut telegraph lines and compels secessionists on the route of railroads to repair them; destruction of a Railroad; Gen. Pope determined to clear Missouri of the rebels.

Our previous dates include the 19th December—present dates include the 24th. We have thus four days later news. Within this time Uncle Samuel has done a good business.

We thus answer the call: "WATCHMAN! WHAT OF THE NIGHT!"

The Slavery Question

We have seen statements in regard to some remarks made by Secretary Cameron at a dinner given by Col. J. W. Forney to George D. Prentice, in Washington City, on the slavery question. We thought them entirely in bad taste, and was glad to see that they were promptly disavowed by Mr. Smith, of the Department of the Interior.

Mr. Cameron said (as quoted in the papers) "as a last resort in this rebellion" the Government ought to arm every man to strike for liberty—"the black man as well as the white."

Mr. Smith promptly expressed his disavowal of the sentiments of Mr. Cameron as the [illegible] tone of the President or his Cabinet. He did not stop there. He stated upon what basis the policy of the Administration, against arming the slaves and thereby encouraging servile insurrection, is founded. He said: "If twenty millions of freemen, single handed, could not subdue this rebellion it would be a disgrace to them, and they ought to give up the contest." It is upon that idea the policy of the Administration is based of not arming the slaves to assist in putting down the rebellion. Mr. Smith, therefore, did well—[illegible] the Administration and the cause of the Union a service by promptly disavowing that the opinions of the Secretary of War, were those of the President and Cabinet.

We have the Mountaineer of the 1st inst. The Col. Wright was laid up for the season. A good deal of ice running in the Columbia river. Capt. Currey's company of 44 men had been mustered into the service. A company of miners were about to proceed to Salmon river overland. The snow was twelve inches deep in the neighborhood of the Dalles on the 1st. The Mountaineer supposes twenty thousand persons will travel over the Mullan Road next season.

A PETTIFOGGING CASE.—The Sacramento papers mention that one John Muller, a lawyer of Sacramento, sued J. A. Duffy for $5,000 damages for calling him a pettifogger.—The jury returned a sealed verdict to the effect that the defendant had been guilty of slander, but awarding one dollar damage to plaintiff—plaintiff to pay the costs. Duffy paid the Clerk of the Court the dollar in five cent pieces.

ARRIVAL OF THE CORTES.

ALL RIGHT!

EASTERN NEWS!

Including the 24th December.

The steamship Cortes arrived at 7 o'clock last evening. We are indebted to Wells, Fargo & Co. for files of papers, and to the Purser for the following:

[illegible]

The News.

St. Louis, Dec. 19, 1861.

There has been a Cabinet Conference in Washington on the Slidell-Mason affair. Our Government says there must be no war with Great Britain on account of the seizure.

Carvajal recently attacked Matamoras and caused great slaughter. Both parties claim a victory.—[illegible]

Gen. Pope, of the Federal Army, recently pursued a portion of Price's army, near Springfield, and succeeded in capturing one hundred and fifty prisoners. He also captured quite an amount of provisions.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 20.—Yesterday Cols. Davis and Marshall, at the head of a detachment of Federal forces, surprised a camp of rebels near Warrensburg, Missouri. The entire force of the rebels surrendered at discretion. The prisoners taken by our troops numbered 1300, among whom were three colonels and seven captains. We also captured 1000 horses, a lot of arms, wagons, etc. On the Federal side ten were killed and wounded. Rebel loss unknown.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 21.—One hundred miles of the track and bridges of the North Missouri Railroad were destroyed by the rebels.

A skirmish took place yesterday on the Virginia side of the Potomac, near Drainsville, between large detachments of Federals and rebels. The latter had one hundred and fifty killed and wounded. The Federal loss was six killed and eight wounded.

The war excitement seems to be subsiding.

QUINCY, December 19.—The President will send a message to the Senate, to-morrow, concerning our relations with Great Britain, which will set at rest public excitement.

Secession dispatches from Washington are published in the New York papers, stating that a rumor was prevalent that Mason and Slidell would be delivered up. These have been contradicted by high authority.

The Richmond and Norfolk papers of December 17th, received at Washington, chronicle the receipt of intelligence from England in reference to Mason and Slidell, which had produced intense excitement with the Southern people.

The correspondents of the Richmond papers from the Potomac line, state that the rebel fortifications at Centreville and Fairfax were complete, and that they were fully prepared for an attack by McClellan.

The Secretary of the Treasury is in New York on a financial visit.

QUINCY, December 20.—In Congress yesterday, the House resumed discussion on the bill authorizing the immediate construction of twenty iron-clad gun boats, which passed.

In the Senate Mr. Wade presented a petition from the citizens of Ohio, asking that J. C. Fremont be appointed Lieutenant General. No action was taken thereon.

Dispatches received at St. Louis from Gen. Pope, state that after a forced march, on the 18th, he got between the enemy (Gen. Johnson being encamped near Chilhowee, with a force 2,200 strong), but as soon as they heard of his approach the rebels beat a rapid retreat towards Rose Hill, leaving all their baggage, arms, munitions, etc., in Gen. Pope's possession. Gen. Pope then threw forward ten companies of cavalry with a section of artillery, in pursuit, following with the main body of his army to Johnson, Bates county. The rebels were so closely pursued that they scattered in all directions.

Gen. Pope forced a body of cavalry through to within 15 miles of Osceola, where Price has [illegible] 8,000 troops, and captured 150 of the rebels with their baggage and horses.—Other rebels were also taken in squads of from 10 to 15, making an aggregate of 300 prisoners.

Geo. S. Fisher, of San Francisco, has been appointed U. S. Vice Consul at Kanagawa, Japan, vice Dorr. Salary $5,000 per annum.

QUINCY, December 21.—Dispatches from Washington give cheering news.

Private letters received from distinguished English Statesmen, and other prominent individuals, give every assurance that it is foreign to the interests of the English Government to make any demand for the release of Mason and Slidell, but it is probable that they will ask for such explanation as the U. S. Government can honorably give.

The Federal troops now occupy Beaufort, S. C., and are fortifying themselves.

The steamer Atlantic has arrived at New York from Port Royal with 12,000 pounds of Sea Island cotton. Over 100,000 pounds of Sea Island cotton had been secured previous to the departure of the Atlantic.

Yesterday, Col. Jeff. C. Davis and Maj. Marshall's commands surprised the rebel camp at Warrensburg, Mo., and captured 1,300 prisoners, including 3 colonels, 17 captains, 1,000 stand of arms, 1,000 horses and full camp equipage. Our loss was but 2 killed and 8 wounded.

The dispatches of the British Minister received at Washington, are reported to be more sensible and moderate than the representations of the British press would lead to the belief.

Gen. Burnside's expedition, consisting of ten regiments, is at Annapolis, and ready to go South.

In the House yesterday, Julian, of Indiana, offered a resolution [illegible] the Fugitive Slave law [illegible] so amended as to forbid the recapture or return of any fugitive from labor, without proof [illegible] the claimant is loyal. After much discussion the resolution was passed.

The capture of 1,300 rebels at Warrensburg, Missouri, by Col. Jeff. C. Davis, is regarded as the most brilliant exploit of the war.

Major Hubbard, of the 1st Missouri cavalry, captured over 60 rebels a day or two since, together with a large amount of baggage.

Gen. Pope and his assistants are determined to rid Missouri of rebels. A battle between Pope's army and Price's is expected every day.

George W. Jones, ex-Minister to Bogota, was arrested at New York yesterday by order of Secretary Seward, and sent to Fort Lafayette.

A great negro insurrection is reported in Mississippi, and an immense amount of property destroyed—$100,000 in the Quitman [illegible].

Gen. Ord, with troops, went out on a foraging expedition on the Potomac. They had a fight with the enemy, captured some prisoners, a large amount of arms, killed and wounded 150 of the enemy.

Among the rebels killed was Col. [illegible], of Kentucky. Their force consisted of three regiments of infantry, company of cavalry, and battery—all under acting Brigadier General John H. Forney, of Alabama. At 9 P. M. our troops returned with 50 wagon loads of forage.

QUINCY, December 22.—Later news has been received from Europe. The question of the arrest of Mason and Slidell on board the Trent continued to excite the public press.

Large 100 pound Armstrong guns were being distributed amongst the ships preparing for sea. This is to be regarded as a precautionary measure against Mexican privateers rather than as a consequence of any apprehension of a rupture with the United States.

A great Irish mass meeting was held in Dublin to consider affairs between Great Britain and America. Feeling ran high in favor of sustaining the cause of the United States. Ireland strongly sympathizes with the Federal Government.

France will do nothing to irritate Great Britain.

The Philadelphia Inquirer has dispatches from Baltimore, saying that Fort Pickens had opened fire on Fort McRae three times since the 22d November—with what effect is not stated.

QUINCY, Dec. 23.—The New York Times' dispatch says Lord Lyons made his first official communication to the Secretary of State. Its contents are not known.

There has been a rupture at Richmond between Gen. Wise and Jeff. Davis. Wise will probably resign, and [illegible] Jennings Wise will oppose Jeff. Davis' Administration in his paper.

The Government has received intelligence that Gen. Scott will immediately return. He will undoubtedly bring important news.

General Halleck has issued orders inflicting death as the penalty for cutting down telegraph lines or burning railroad bridges. Secessionists and their slaves will be required to repair all damages to railroads etc. where they lie.

The clothing store of [illegible], New York, yesterday, Higgins & Co.'s clothing store, at [illegible] Broadway, was robbed of [illegible] $5,000.

Garrett Davis, U. S. Senator from Kentucky, took his seat [illegible] day.

The steamship North Star, from Aspinwall Dec. 1[illegible], has arrived.

The French transport ship Rescue [illegible] bound to Callao was wrecked fifty miles from Valparaiso. She had six hundred soldiers on board, five or six only of whom were saved.

A dispatch to the N. Y. Post gives a rumor that the Cabinet has resolved to release Mason and Slidell, and in all probability send a ship to take them to Halifax. The Post don't believe it.

QUINCY, Dec. 24.—The House yesterday passed Wilson's resolution prohibiting the U. S. officers using any of their forces for the purpose of returning fugitive slaves.

Morrill reported a bill increasing duties on coffee, tea and sugar. The proposed increase will yield a revenue of eight millions [illegible] should the importations be the same as in 1860.

[illegible] introduced a bill granting lands to a railroad from Missouri river to San Francisco.

A private dispatch received last night says that Gen. Halleck has informed the Secessionists to repair the damages to the North Missouri Railroad. Thirty bridge burners have been arrested and have probably been shot.

Orders have been issued from Washington [illegible] them [illegible] Americans [illegible] part [illegible].

CITY.

THE BOAT RACE.—According to previous notice, the two rival boatmen made their appearance in their respective boats at the appointed hour in front of Commercial Wharf, both men were confident of success, but Seaman had great odds, he having the swiftest and lightest built boat. When the signal for starting was given, Frenchy put in some of his "best licks," which brought him about a boat's length ahead of his rival, which he retained until nearing the home stretch. When about at the foot of Salmon street Lyman put in a little more "muscle," which brought him "home" about two boat lengths ahead of his opponent. Time—by our chronometer—37½ minutes. Distance—two miles. There must have been some seven or eight hundred persons present, who seemed highly interested in the race.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On the 1st inst., while the family of Mr. Gerow, who reside some two miles east of this city on the Vancouver road, were for a short time absent from their home, the clothes of his little daughter, some five years of age, caught fire, and before any assistance reached her she was so badly burned that she died the same evening.

DISCHARGED.—The young man alluded to in our yesterday's issue as having been arrested on a charge of felony was discharged by the Recorder yesterday afternoon, the prosecuting witness not making his appearance at the time set for the hearing of the case by the Court.

ANOTHER BOAT RACE.—Immediately after the termination of the boat race yesterday Seaman and Frenchy again matched to pull a race, the same distance, this afternoon at two o'clock for two hundred dollars a side.

PLUMBING AND GAS FITTING ESTABLISHMENT.—The reader will please notice the advertisement of Mr. C. H. Myers in this paper. To the business of Plumber and Gas Fitter, he adds the business of selling cooking ranges, hot water boilers, &c., &c. See advertisement. We are glad to see this new establishment, and hope our citizens will patronize it handsomely.

Last night a heavy mail came in from the South. We had many letters—one, containing money from Kerbyville, was robbed of its contents.

Jewelry, watches, &c., removed to the Franklin Bookstore. Birnbaum has removed his stock to the Franklin Bookstore, where he is selling off his stock at astonishingly low prices.

AGROUND.—Capt. Hoffman of the steamer Cowlitz informs us that the steamer Multnomah is aground on a sand bar at the mouth of the Cowlitz river.

The Steamer Cortes brought a mail from San Francisco.

Commercial and Financial.

The last week has been very dull in Portland. Very little produce came to market, and prices generally seem unchanged. The Upper Columbia is closed—but the Cortez from below was able to reach Portland.

We have San Francisco commercial dates including the 30th, and make a few quotations of sales.

OLD SOUTH CAROLINIANS.—When General Greene retired after the battle of Eutaw to the Santee hills, in September, 1781, the South Carolinians endeavored to persuade the Maryland and Virginia troops to desert and go home. At last a fellow named Timothy Griffin, seeing some Marylanders in earnest conversation with an officer, went up and openly urged them to resist his authority. The officer, Capt. McPherson of Maryland, knocked the mutinous South Carolinian down and then had him arrested. The next morning he was tried, found guilty, and shot immediately, in the presence of the whole army. This put a stop to "Secession."

THE TURKISH SULTANA.—The Sultana Aziz is undoubtedly an unhappy woman. When her husband Abdul ascended the throne, he refused the customary beautiful slave out of regard for Mrs. Aziz. But lately, it seems, he repents his virtue and has sent to Circassia for one hundred and fifty young and handsome girls, meaning to establish a bang up harem, the wretch, and become no better than a libertine. This freak requires cash down—upwards of $125,000—the torments of the Sultana, of course, beyond pecuniary estimate.

A SPECIMEN.—A good story is told of the late W. E. Burton. While traveling on a steamboat down the Hudson, he seated himself at the table and called for some beefsteak.—The waiter furnished him with a small strip of the article, such as travelers are put off with. Taking it upon his fork, and turning it over and examining it with one of his peculiar serious looks, the comedian gravely remarked, "Yes, that's it, bring me some."

Madame Saqui, a few weeks since, performed on the tight rope at the Hippodrome, Paris. She is now 83 years of age, and is forced to dance by the profligacy of her son, who squandered on infamous women a fortune she earned in youth. The only creditable act the boy ever did was to blow out his brains.

A WIFE CROP.—A Missouri paper informs its readers that the "wife-crop of Gasconade county in 1860 was 25,000 gals." The next paper corrected the error by putting "wine" instead of "wife."

A woman down East has commenced a suit of divorce against her husband, because he would not allow her to apply her tongue to the molasses jug every time she used it—a privilege every Yankee woman considers sacred.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the hands of disease, who, having recovered their former health [illegible] their names and [illegible] statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The certificates imperiously command their publicity, and we commend them to the attention of all afflicted:

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrollable passion in youth; depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance, [illegible] a few weeks, and in several instances [illegible] treatment. I found, to my mortification, that [illegible] of relief, my symptoms [illegible] more alarming [illegible] and being told by one that my disease [illegible] confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health [illegible]; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, I called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining [illegible] some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. [illegible] I resolved to place myself [illegible] by a strict obedience to all his directions [illegible] my head became clear, and my [illegible] in my back [illegible] the weakness [illegible] the nervous reaction of my whole body [illegible] excitement, the [illegible] distrust and want of confidence [illegible] study, and want of resolution, [illegible] pleasurable dreams [illegible] involuntary discharges, have all disappeared [illegible] two months after having consulted the doctor. I feel [illegible] by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With this view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares [illegible] quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend to all [illegible] who may stand in need of medical advice, assured by my own experience that a [illegible] and permanent cure will be effected.
